At two o'clock yesterday afternoon Marion Matthews, a colored man, entered the office of Justice Howerton and asked for a search warrant to search the house of Charley Morton, on Railread avenue for a gold double case watch which was stolen from him on the 11th of the present month.

Accordingly Officers Brawfood, Scott and several others went to the house mentioned, and proceeded to inaugurate a search. During this time a bundle was thrown from one of the upper stories by Rosa Robertson to a colored woman beneath, whose name was not given.
